"The Future at Stake After Devastation, But Blessings Pour Forth... ...a Pastor's and Son's Stories"

From the Minister's Perspective

One of the devastating results of forced resignation is its effect upon the pastor's family. The pastor endures the abuse, rejection and pain that such brings...the family watches the one they love go through such an ordeal...the future of all at stake. . . . To read more, CLICK HERE

From the Son's Perspective

I was home from college after my sophomore year when my parents asked that my sister and I join them for a visit with some close family friends after church on a Sunday night. . . . As we sat in the living room Dad announced that a small group within our church had made it their goal to see that he was forced to leave as pastor of our church. . . . It is impossible to fully express the full extent of what I felt from that moment on through the next days, weeks, months or years. . . . Click here TO READ MORE

Ross Campbell, Bill Irvin and Charles Chandler

Bill Irvin Receives Campbell-Wallace MTM Achievement Award

During the September Trustee Meeting, Bill Irvin was presented with the first Campbell-Wallace MTM Achievement Award for his outstanding contribution to the ministry of MTM. Bill was the co-founder of MTM along with Charles and served as the first Board of Trustees Chair. He has chaired the Endowment and Development Committee and provides all the MTM organizational legal work (pro bono). Bill continues to provide invaluable service to MTM.

Ross Campbell presented the plaque. The award is named after Ross Campbell and Arch Wallace, both of whom are recipients of the Henry V. Langford Lifetime Service Award for their service to the community and their time, energy and expertise given through MTM.
