I Chose to Respond

"My faith, integrity and self-respect remained intact."

Thanks to the 12-step program of recovery, popularized by Alcoholics Anonymous, I felt empowered on two different occasions to fight back. I chose to respond to passive-aggressive behavior and "anonymous" criticism. The outcome didn't change in either setting, but at least my faith, integrity and self-respect remained intact.

A Testimony - "God knew I needed this..."

Ken Medema gave a spectacular performance at First Baptist Church in Richmond, VA, on April 29, 2012 to benefit the MTM Foundation. His theme was "Come up alongside of one in need," which reflected MTM's mission statement to be advocates for clergy and their families (see mission statement to the left). We laughed and cried and enjoyed the whole evening together. He has a new CD, "Oasis: Songs for the Pastor's Soul," great music not only for pastors, but for anyone needing encouragement. The following link is a testimony from a woman who attended the concert. Read more...
