MTM Wellness Retreat -- a Step Toward Healing

What Helped Heal our Wounded Souls

The affect that my forced termination had on my spouse and my two children was instantaneous, deep, and long-lasting.

It was instantaneous in that they went one minute from thinking that church was a wonderful place to be to wondering how anyone could be so ugly to their Daddy.

It was instantaneous in that my ability to provide a financial future for our family became a HUGE fear. BTW - Between the love offering that I received and the $10 per hour job that I obtained, we moved to our next church assignment 10 months later and NEVER missed a bill! Glory to God!

Future Wellness Retreats

October 31 - November 4
Mentone, Alabama

November 14-18
Geneva Camp and
Conference Center
Holland, Michigan

December 5-9
Baptist Theological Seminary of Richmond
Richmond, Virginia

January 9-13, 2012
Carson Newman College
Jefferson City, TN

The depth of the hurt was the easiest to measure. There were dozens of nights where we cried ourselves to sleep. There were dozens of conversations about where they would be in school the following year. The pained look in their eyes spoke volumes, too.

It's been over 10 years now since I was forced to resign. I still wonder when the next Gang of Four is going to sneak into my current office. My spouse keeps church members at long arm's reach even now. My daughters still can't put on paper what their experiences were like that fateful summer.

Friends, God's Word, the Ministering To Ministers Foundation, and our families were all used by God to help heal our wounded souls. I urge you to do what you can to protect your current church staff from the wolves that are lurking about, seeking to destroy!
